26 July, 1933 MH re McKINLEY.

In a biography of the late President McKinley of the United States, it is stated that he had brothers called James, David, and Andrew. My father, Wm. McKinley also had brothers by these names.

Wm. McKinley's first home in Peel was in Chinguacousy twp. They rented the land when they came out first. My mother settled in Toronto when she came out first. She claims that her home was on the corner of Queen and Yonge Sts. just where Eaton's store is now. Obituary.

MCKINLEY: Nov. 7, Mrs. Wm. McKinley passed to rest....Mrs. McKinley had lived almost her entire life in this locality having come with her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Rutherford to the township of Albion when about two years of age. She was born on August 14, 1852, and thirty-three years ago she was married to Mr. William McKinley, and, as in girlhood, her mature life was spent in seeking to do well. She was an active member of the Methodist church and to the last was interested in every detail of church work. She was a Charter member of the Women's Missionary Society, of Bolton, and a life member of the Society and was present at the October meeting of the Auxiliary. She is survived by her husband, three sons, Dr. W. E. of Toronto, Dr. Fuller of the Chinese Methodist Mission, Mr. Lewis of Bolton and one daughter, Miss Annie, also at home. To all the many friends express sympathy.--Enterprise.

INTERVIEW WITH ROBERT CHARLES McKINLEY

AF

The house where my father lived ~~in~~ first was just a small log one. We tore it down a short while ago and back of an old ladder we found a piece of leather rolled round and round. When it was opened up we found an Orange Sash which had belonged to my father. It was perfectly preserved. He belonged for quite some time to the Orangemen but for some reason or other he dropped out of them before he died.

(Mr. McKinley could only give the family history of the McKinleys but suggested that we get in touch with his brother William J. McKinley of Caledon East who is an older member of the family and should be better able to give us information.)

Wm. J. McKinley was for a while in the Ontario Immigration office in Toronto. I don't know the years. After that he went back to Caledon East. He has been in the Council a lot and was Reeve in 1932 of Caledon E.

Also get in touch with Mrs. John McBride, 120 Glendale Avenue Toronto. She is now 79 years of age and is quite bright and should be able to tell a lot about the McKinley family.

Wm. McKinley cont'd.

Born in N. of Ireland - Came to E½ Lot 35, E. Ging
Later to above mentioned lot. Married Mary Wiley, 2 sons and 4 dau's. Parents are both dead and buried in Caledon East Public Cemetery. Wm. McKinley was a shoe maker by trade and worked at it for some time before coming here.

Mrs. Wm. McKinley (Mary Wiley) recalls her trip up the St. Lawrence with her parents in a vessel drawn by oxen from the bank at one of the resting places for the oxen. They threw out a plank and the passengers would get off for a rest also; she and her oldest brother strayed away from the parents to pick berries and when the time came to start, she could'nt be found. So the boat pulled out and Mr. Wiley after finding her, had to carry his daughter along the bank to the next stopping place. From there they journeyed to Muddy York, and she often declared that they lived in a little house on Rouge St. where now stands Eaton's store. From here they journeyed to W½ lot 11, con. 6, East Caledon.

John Wiley married a Miss Hall. 3 sons and 4 dau's. (one of which was Mary Wiley). He was a weaver by trade. Parents moved to Mona Centre where they are dead and buried.

Wm. McKinley Sr. found a few Indian relics on his farm lot 11, con. 6, E.

The house where my father lived ~~In~~ first was just a small log one. We tore it down a short while ago and back of an old ladder we found a piece of leather rolled round and round. When it was opened up we found an Orange Sash which had belonged to my father. It was perfectly preserved. He belonged for quite some time to the Orangemen but for some reason or other he dropped out of them before he died.

Too late to be of interest

MRS. WILLIAM McKINLEY

In the early hours of Saturday morning Mrs. Wm. McKinley passed to rest after one week's acute illness.

Mrs. McKinley had lived almost her entire life in this locality having come with her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Rutherford to the township of Albion when about two years of age. She was born on August 14, 1852, and educated in the neighboring schools. With an earnest ambition to teach she applied herself with characteristic enthusiasm to her studies and was just qualified to undertake this work when her mother's place in the home was made vacant by death. There were four children younger in the home and to these she became as a mother and to all the large family she was home-maker. .....

Thirty-three years ago she was married to Mr. William McKinley, and, as in girlhood, her mature life was spent in seeking to do well.

She was an active member of the Methodist church and to the last was interested in every detail of church work. She was a Charter member of the Women's Missionary Society of Bolton, and a life member of the Society and was present at the October meeting of the Auxiliary....

She is survived by her husband, three sons, Dr. W. E. of Toronto, Dr. Fuller of the Chinese Methodist Mission, Mr. Lewis of Bolton and one daughter, Miss Annie, also at home.

McKinley

One of our oldest residents, one of the very few who are left, has "Crossed the Bar." We refer to Mrs. Wm. McKinley born in County Fermanagh, Ireland, she emigrated to this country early in life. In the course of time, she married Mr. Wm. McKinley and settled on the farm where she resided continously for over 50 years. Her husband died about seven years ago, and since then she has been under the watchful care of her surviving daughters whose houses were close by. She leaves two sons, Wm. John and Robert, and three daughters, Mrs. McBride, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Patterson. Deceased was well known for her charitable disposition. During her long journey through life, four score and three years, she never turned away the beggar from the door, and a noted characteristic of hers was to take a just and charitable view of the erring side of human nature. In the crowded, whirling, wailing storm of life's activities, the recollection of the dead soon fades away from the public, but in the family circle the vacant chair causes many anxious yearnings for "the touch of the vanished hand and the touch of the voice that is still."
